1834

The 1834 Cabinet Watch Winder Collection is the culmination of over 180 years of design and development. For five generations the WOLF family has been hand-making cabinets to protect your watches and ensure they keep perfect time. Millions of timepieces are kept safe by WOLF. Today we have used this experience to create a collection that is more technologically advanced than any other winder.

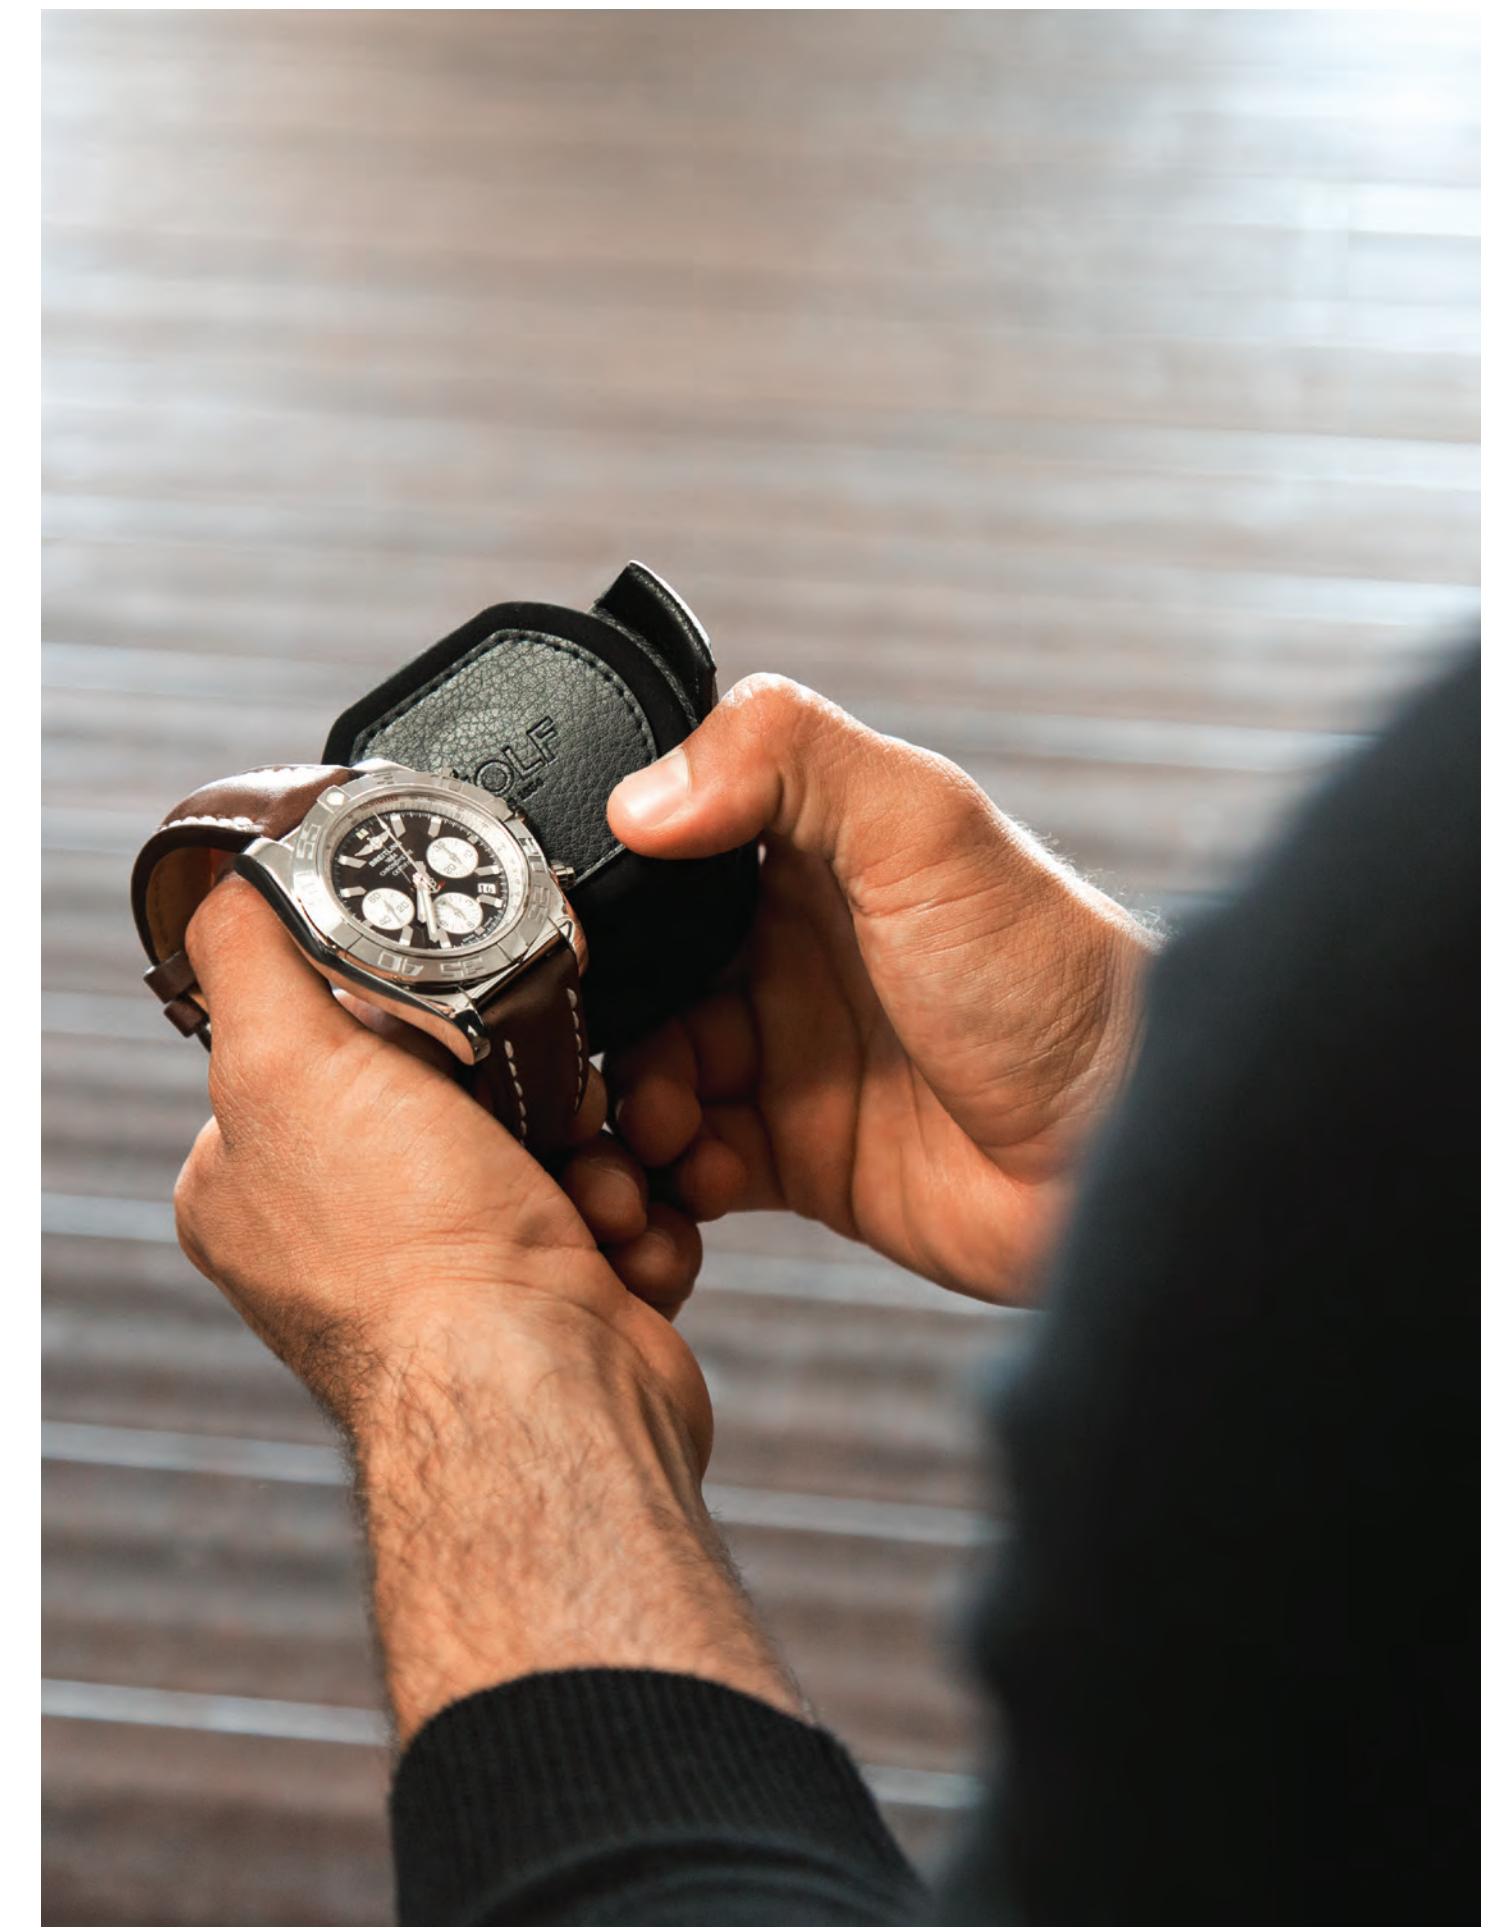

Control

1834 winders are Bluetooth controlled through the WOLF 1834 app available on the app store for iPhone and Android. The modules can be individually set to accomodate the needs of every automatic watch, no matter how specific they may be. Keeping track of your timepieces has never been so simple. For more detail see page 20.

Protection

All 1834 winders come with key and combination locks. Each drawer contains additional watch storage and a 3 piece watch roll with hidden storage.

PERFECTING OUR CRAFT FOR FIVE GENERATIONS

Family owned for over 180 years, WOLF's English roots are steeped in history and tradition. The forefathers coming from Sweden and Germany have passed down skills from generation to generation. Over the last 15 years the brand has gained worldwide recognition and can now be found in over 60 countries. People around the world appreciate that WOLF takes care of the precious things in your life beautifully.

1834 - THE BEGINNING

German silversmith Philipp Wolf I created the company in 1834, when he discovered that his silver pieces sold more when presented in beautiful boxes. As he began selling more boxes than silver, he refocused his designs creating sophisticated jewellery cases, which not only looked good but protected meaningful treasures.

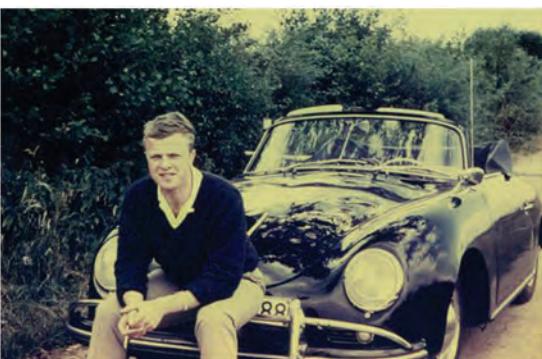

1895 - THE APPRENTICE

Son, Philipp Wolf II, had been working as his father's apprentice. An enjoyable summer in southern Sweden convinced him to immigrate to Malmö. There he started his own workshop and soon earned the respect and recognition within the area for his craft. As time passed, his sons, Ernst and Philipp III, proudly continued the tradition of box making.

1930 - PHILIPP WOLF III

Philipp Wolf III continued to expand the Swedish factory into its third generation of box making. After the Second World War, he embarked on long trips to America to sell his presentation boxes to newly emerging watch and jewellery markets. Progress was slow, but steady, the trips to America by sea taking up to a month each time.

1962 - PHILIP WOLF IV

Philip Wolf IV, the first of three sons born to Philipp III, emigrated to England to start a new factory. Over time, his highly automated factory employed over 300 people; was recognized as the largest manufacturer of jewellery boxes and display materials for all of Great Britain and much of Europe.

1988 - SIMON PHILIP WOLF V

With the economy and business flourishing in England, the time was right for the Wolf family to assume the biggest challenge ever undertaken: tackling the USA and Canadian markets. It was up to Simon Philip Wolf V, with guidance from his father Philip IV, to persevere.

Present Day - Celebrating over 180 Years

Today the Wolf family legacy proudly continues, stronger than ever and into its fifth generation. The company works tirelessly to design the best watch winders, watch boxes and jewellery cases. Their patented technology and innovative product design in jewellery cases and watch rotators has made the company what it is today—the market leader.
